

UNION DEPOT FOR FRESNO TOPIC AT STATE MEETING

Representatives of California Cities Gather at Santa Rosa

ZONING IS URGED

Thelen Declares State Has Power to Require Union Stations

(Special to The Republican.)
SANTA ROSA, Sept. 25.—Declaring that the state railroad commission had the complete power to locate union depots and order the joint use of tracks by two or more lines, and that generally the commission was in favor of city plans where they promoted greater safety and convenience, Max Thelen today answered a question assigned him by the city planning conference.

In a later address, Thelen outlined the work undertaken by the commission in the removing of dangerous grade crossings. He stated that he believed the state should pay a portion of the expense through money obtained from the motor vehicle department and that the cities, in turn, should stand a portion of the expense. He refused to discuss the proposal that the railroads be ordered to stand all of this expense and that in return the commission would permit an increased freight rate. To separate all of the grades will ultimately cost one hundred million dollars on four thousand crossings.

Possibility in Fresno
Thelen was questioned by both Mayor Toomey and Miles O'Humphreys of Fresno, concerning the removal of the freight branch and the establishment of a union depot for both the Santa Fe and the Southern Pacific in Fresno. Thelen declared that he could not answer the problem until they were presented, but that the commission had the power to accomplish both results if the people of the city would be considered carefully in the determination of such cases.

The main factors in the establishment of a union depot were: First, that it would afford greater safety and convenience; second, that it would be accessible to the public; third, that it must be considered in the light of present business and commercial interest; fourth, it must be considered in the light of future growth; and fifth, the cost must be commensurate with the benefit.

"Practicality precludes the possibility that the commission authorize any large expenditure now," he said. "However, now is the time to prepare for such changes and to expect that we will have 23 applications for a union depot. There is only one more city in the state and that one, Los Angeles, has already applied for a union station."

Value of Zoning
Zoning is a war expedient, and in the interest of a broader and healthier community life, were urged at the league of California municipalities also meeting here, by George L. Bell, secretary of the state commission on the creation and housing of cities, and by the following of the state housing board in efforts to have constructive zoning ordinances passed. "Now is the time for us to get busy on the most important of our problems," he said. "America is called upon to develop her resources. There will be less opposition now when permanency is assured. Housing of the right kind is more important than medicine and surgery. We are preventative while the other is palliative."

He To Business
"However, I plead for zone laws in the interest of better business. You planners will develop opposition, but it will be selfish opposition, but you warranted. Some may oppose you from ignorance. This is the class of people who opposed the railroad commission and fought it so long. In New York, the really board opposed the height limitations of buildings. These same men told me on a recent visit that they were mistaken, that they had stood in the light of their own interests."

It is the intention of the state commission to co-operate with every planning commission and to aid them in their campaign of general education of the people. While we do not wish to become a part of a review, we would suggest that all opposition from city officials and others be reported to the state commission, that you may have the benefit of our advice."

FERGUSON IS FOREVER BARRIED FROM OFFICE

AUSTIN, Tex., Sept. 25.—James E. Ferguson was formally declared ineligible from office as governor of Texas and barred from hereafter holding any public office of honor, trust or profit by the adoption today by the senate high court of a special committee report. The majority was adopted after a minority report, recommending only removal from office had been defeated. The vote on the adoption of the majority report was 25 to 3, with one pair and one absent.

STRIKE BREAKER KILLED IN FIGHT IN SAN FRANCISCO

Public Utilities Committee of Supervisors Votes to Buy United Railroads—Action Tomorrow

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—Charles Bender of Chicago, a substitute carman employed by the United Railways, approximately 1750 of whose platform employees are on strike, was killed and Benjamin McGranaghan, a teamster was wounded in two shooting affrays tonight in different parts of the city. Seven men, all of them substitute carmen or carmen guards, were arrested.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—A resolution recommending purchase of the United Railroads by the City of San Francisco was adopted today by the public utilities committee of the board of supervisors. Mayor Bohn said he would call a special meeting of the board Thursday to consider further action.

Sporadic rioting broke out today in the street car strike while representatives of the Municipal Railways, met with a special meeting of the board Thursday to consider further action.

Several substitute car men were injured, none seriously, he said. About 400 cars were running today, the normal service being 550 cars.

O'CONNELL GUILTY UNDER DRAFT LAW

Five Others Convicted to Be Sentenced Saturday

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—A verdict of guilty under the draft law was returned here tonight by a jury in the United States district court. The men found guilty with O'Connell were David J. Smith, Herman B. Smith, Carl J. P. Vacher, Thomas Carney and E. R. Hoffman.

United States District Judge William C. Van Fleet set Saturday morning for sentencing the defendants. The men were given until tomorrow to arrange new bonds for their release.

The jury deliberated one hour and ten minutes before returning a verdict, which held the defendants guilty of the two offenses named in indictments. The specific charges were conspiracy to violate the selective draft and espionage laws.

Sought to Nullify Draft
O'Connell, it was charged in the indictment, was organizer of the "American Patriots," and the defendants were charged jointly with the printing and circulating of a document headed, "Legal opinion given to the committee on the law to America's patriots." The defendants, it was alleged, sought to induce young men not to register, to refuse to submit to physical examination, to file false claims for exemption and to resist generally with resulting and enlistment.

O'Connell was arrested here August 7, last, by federal officials while he was attending a meeting known as the "sixth American conference for democracy and peace." He was taken to the speakers' platform with former Senator John D. Works, Dr. David Starr Jordan, Bishop H. P. Parks of Chicago and others, when the United States marshals arrived to arrest him. Dr. Starr Jordan Smith of Clement, Cal., was delivering an address.

Indictments charging a conspiracy to thwart the operation of the draft law, were returned against O'Connell and the five other defendants on August 31 by the United States grand jury here.

Rev. William C. Menegoth of Lodi, Cal., who also was named in the indictment, was released by the government under a promise that he would be written at the suggestion of the district attorney.

Ray Benjamin, deputy state attorney general, and chief prosecutor, was rebooked several times during the day for planning to bring in matters pertaining to the Mooney case.

Samuel M. Shortridge, chief counsel for O'Connell, said that District Attorney Charles M. Fickert would be called to the stand tomorrow.

LA FOLLETTE'S EXPULSION AS TRAITOR IS DEMANDED

Minnesota Public Safety Commission Takes Action

ST. PAUL SPEECH

Disclaimed by Non-Partisan League Which Had Arranged It

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 25.—Expulsion of Senator Robert M. La Follette from the United States Senate is demanded in a petition addressed to that body today by the Minnesota Public Safety Commission. Senator La Follette is accused in the commission resolution of making an address of a diabolical and seditious nature at a public meeting before a large audience at the Non-Partisan League convention last Thursday night in this city.

The commission also referred to the United States district attorney the master of the conduct of Senator La Follette and others at the same meeting, with a request that the parties be found to have violated any federal statutes, be vigorously prosecuted.

The commission's action came at the close of an executive session given almost exclusively to the consideration of the Senator La Follette speech and a searching examination of A. C. Townley, president of the Non-Partisan League. The latter expressed his disappointment at the statements in which the senator indulged and disclaimed responsibility for permitting the utterances.

GAS EXPLODES; TWO MEN KILLED

Oil Cargo on Tank Steamer Threatened; Not Incendiary

POINT RICHMOND, Cal., Sept. 25.—Two men were killed early today in the explosion of a quantity of distillate gas in a forward compartment of the Standard Oil tank steamer J. A. Moffett, at dock here. The superheated and machinery of the steamer was wrecked, but a cargo of 61,000 gallons of gasoline and crude oil was unharmed.

The two victims of the explosion, Ernest Rutter, a quartermaster for the company, and A. R. Julliet, a laborer, were losing out the compartment, were being lost when the explosion occurred. The mangled remains of the men were found after a rescuing party headed by J. F. Brooks, superintendent of the Standard Oil plant here, had fought gas fumes for an hour in their efforts to reach the victims.

Brooks said he believed the explosion was caused by one of the men striking a match to light his pipe. "It was purely an accident," he said. "There is not the slightest evidence that an explosive of any kind was used."

The Moffett arrived yesterday in ballast from Vancouver, B. C. There were about ten men on board at the time of the explosion.

BERMUDA CANNOT SHIP ITS CROPS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Unable to move its food crop because of a lack of ocean tonnage, Bermuda has sent a mission of four members to Washington to confer on the subject with officials of this government. They point out that America, by importing $60,000 crates of vegetables, 80,000 barrels of potatoes and 130,000 crates of onions available this winter in Bermuda, will be releasing national foodstuffs for the European allies.

German 'Planes Again Raid British Capital

For the second night in succession German airmen have raided the southeastern section of England and reached London.

Tuesday night the Germans did not succeed in penetrating to the heart of London, being stopped on the outskirts by the defensive forces. A score of casualties are reported. Latest reports on the raid of Monday night show fifteen dead and seventeen injured.

The German airplanes Tuesday night followed the same course as the raiders of Monday night, attempting to approach London through Kent and Essex and up the course of the Thames.

Germans Make Attack in Flanders

The army of Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria, became active again Tuesday and made desperate attempts to retake the ground gained by the British last Thursday in Flanders. The Germans succeeded in entering the British lines at two points during the first assaults, but the British withstood further attacks and straightened their lines. The day's efforts brought nothing to the Germans but additional casualties. Great artillery activity is in progress on the sector of Ypres.

Northeast of Verdun, the infantry activity has slackened. After their ineffectual efforts of Monday, the Germans unsuccessfully attacked the French near the Bois Le Chaume early Tuesday. Berlin claims officially to have taken trenches here on Monday and to have held them against counter attacks. On the Aisne front the artillery battle continues.

There has been no great activity on the other front. The Italians have repulsed attacks on the Bainsizza plateau, northeast of Gorizia. German efforts to recapture the now positions gained by the Russians southeast of Riga have been checked by the Russians.

Noted Aiators Killed
Captain George Guynemer, the leading French aviator, is believed by the French war office to have been killed. Guynemer left Tank for a flight on the German lines in Flanders two weeks ago and nothing has been heard of him since. Lieutenant Voese, a leading German aviator, has been killed in action with his Fieseler adversary.

Great Britain and France have formerly notified the provisional Russian government that they would not conclude a separate peace to the detriment of Russia. These assurances were in reply to reports current in Russia that Germany was endeavoring to make peace at the expense of the new republic.

ARGENTINE LOWER HOUSE VOTES TO BREAK RELATIONS

Will President Irigoyen Dare Veto Resolution? Did Germans Stir Up Strike

BUESNOS AIRES, Sept. 25.—Rumors were current tonight that President Irigoyen was not willing to break off relations with Germany, notwithstanding the action taken today by the chamber of deputies. It was announced tonight that a manifestation would be made before the congressional palace tomorrow to demand an immediate rupture in the name of the Argentine public.

The action of the chamber of deputies caused little surprise among officials of the state department and it is believed here that the break will be followed by war.

President Irigoyen has been consistent in his determination not to permit his country to take other than a neutral position, but it is considered improbable that he will veto the action of the legislative branch of his government. A political danger would be faced, since the majority of the people appear to feel keenly the ridiculous position in which their country has been placed by the duplicity of the German minister.

Although a great military support might be given the allies by Argentina, her economic aid would be important. Perhaps the largest producing country in South America, she could contribute plentifully to the food supply of the fighting nations.

MONTEVIDEO, Sept. 25.—The Uruguayan congress has been called to meet in special session Saturday to vote on the question of severing relations with Germany. This action was decided on by the Uruguayan government as the result of the steps taken by the Argentine congress. The foreign minister will explain the government's plans for a break with Germany at the opening of the special session.

BUENOS AIRES, Sept. 25.—The chamber of deputies today voted in favor of a rupture with Germany. The vote was 53 to 15.

The authorities have been advised officially that the strike in the city of Santa Fe during the last month was fomented and supported by Germans.

The situation brought about by the strike is becoming more serious and it is feared the conflict will assume a revolutionary character if an immediate settlement is not reached.

The city food supplies have been almost cut off. The cutting of telegraph wires has isolated the capital except from nearby southern points. The only cable communication open is by way of London.

The resolution declaring for the breaking of relations with Germany adopted today by the chamber of deputies, was passed last week by the Argentine senate by a vote of 23 to 1.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Besides further consolidating the American policy for democracy, the addition to Argentina to Germany's list of enemies would mean the partial relieving of the United States and Brazilian fleets in the patrol of the south Atlantic, even if there should be no spectacular co-operation by sending an army to France.

SOCIALISTS GAIN SEATS IN SWEDEN

Leaders of All Three Political Parties Returned to Parliament

STOCKHOLM, Sept. 25.—The Socialists made gains in the elections to the lower chamber of the Swedish parliament, concluded Friday and the position of Hjalmar Branting, the Socialist leader, was strengthened as regards the extremist wing of his own party. The Conservatives lost two seats to the Socialists who also gained another in Stockholm. Four national Socialists were replaced by the section of the party led by Branting. The Liberals held on to their seats.

Leaders of the three prominent parties, Admiral Linman of Conservatives; Branting of the Socialists and Eden of the Liberals, also retained their seats.

RAILWAY AND OIL MEN EXEMPTED

Twenty-two Discharged From Consideration at Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 25.—Class exemption of railroad and oilmen in certain positions when supported by employers' requests were approved today as the policy of the district exemption board here. Twenty-two men in these industries, designated for service in the draft, accordingly were discharged.

Those included in the class exemption by the board's vote were: Engineers, conductors, firemen, brakemen, carmen, expert shovemen and necessary clerical men on railroads; and in the oil industry superintendents, foremen, drillers and tool dressers.

Oil companies here said they would seek for the exemption of about twenty-four men under this ruling.

WICHITA, Kan., Sept. 25.—George Bartholme, former correspondent at Washington, D. C., for the Cologne (Germany) Gazette, is held today for investigation by federal authorities. A telegram he had sent to the station for shipment contained about 300 pounds of Congressional Records, check stubs and other papers.

COAL MINERS DEMANDING BIG WAGE ADVANCE

Nation-wide Suspension of Operations Threatened by Claims

REFUSAL LIKELY

Men Have Chance to Go Into Factories for Increased Pay

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Immediate wage increases of from 20 to 70 per cent were demanded by the country's coal miners. It was announced here tonight after a preliminary meeting of operators and miners' representatives of the central competitive field in Washington to discuss again wage adjustment.

The demands were formulated by the miners' representatives tonight and will be presented at a joint meeting tomorrow. "There is every indication that the mine owners will flatly refuse to meet them; first, on the grounds that they are too high, and second, that the raising of coal prices by President Wilson will not permit of any increases."

The increases, asked, while stipulated for the central field, comprising Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and west Ohio, also would serve as a basis for the entire country, and if they are granted, would have to be met by other districts.

The demands are as follows: Increase of 15 cents a ton on pick and machine-mined coal at all mining points in the United States.

The percentages of increase granted on machine and pick coal to be applied to all differentials existing between thin and thick veins.

Advance of $1.90 a day for all men employed in and around mines, and 20 per cent raises on all deadwork and yarding.

Today's joint conference was opened with a speech by Dr. J. A. Garfield, president of the United Mine Workers of America, who called the conference. "Liberality increases," he declared, "were necessary to prevent men from leaving their mines to work in munition and other work which pays higher wages. Unless wages are raised, he said, the miners will leave for higher money elsewhere, and production of coal immediately will be cut."

The miners' position was presented by John P. White, president of the United Mine Workers of America, who called the conference. "Liberality increases," he declared, "were necessary to prevent men from leaving their mines to work in munition and other work which pays higher wages. Unless wages are raised, he said, the miners will leave for higher money elsewhere, and production of coal immediately will be cut."

TEACHING CAREER IN TWO CONTINENTS

Miss Clara Armstrong Long Authority in Argentina

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 25.—A record of half a century devoted to the education of women on two continents was closed with the death here on September 13 of Miss Clara J. Armstrong, at the age of 70. Since she was 20 years old Miss Armstrong had been a teacher in various schools in the United States and Argentina.

Early in life she displayed an unusual aptitude for learning. At the age of 4 she could read and it was said by those who knew her as a girl in her native town of Alden, N. Y., that at the age of 3 she had acquired all the fundamentals of her education. Graduated from the State Normal School at Oswego, N. Y., she became principal of the high school at Buffalo, N. Y., at the age of 20, and later principal of the State Normal School at Indianapolis, Ind., where the Clara J. Armstrong Club still exists as a testimonial to her force of character and her influence as an educator.

While serving in this capacity she attracted the attention of Dr. Sarmento, then Argentine minister to the United States, who invited her to go to his country and aid in the development of education for women there. For ten years Miss Armstrong was in charge of a government school for women at Catamarca, a point a thousand miles inland and away from any railroad. She left that school to become professor of French and natural history of a school at San Nicolas de los Arroyos, and from there she went to reorganize a school for women at San Juan. Subsequently she became administrator and principal of the North American Normal School at Buenos Aires.

During her residence in Argentina, Miss Armstrong made several visits to Spain to study its art and architecture on which subjects she was regarded as an authority.

On her return to the United States Miss Armstrong became principal of the Catholic Annex of the State Normal School at Paltz, N. Y. At the time of her death she was principal of the high school department for a private school for girls here.

Miss Armstrong was born in Alden, N. Y., Sept. 25, 1847.

PACIFIST MAYOR WOULD BE SENATOR

Thompson to Make Illinois Issue Out of Pro-German Attitude

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—Mayor William Hale Thompson, of Chicago, announced tonight his candidacy for the Republican nomination for United States Senator to succeed James Hamilton Lewis, Democrat, at the primary election next September, having his contest on the ground of opposing the people of Illinois "an opportunity to vote on vital governmental policies, involving the most precious rights of American citizens."

The announcement says: "I stand upon my record as a public official, my public addresses and my authorized public statements."

The mayor recently sued Chicago newspapers for attacks on him in connection with his support of the entrance of the United States into the European war and the draft law and his opposition to Governor Frank O. Lowden who ordered the suppression of a peace meeting in Chicago.

Mayor Thompson has been quoted as saying that as mayor of the "great German city of the world" he yielded to none in patriotism but he opposed the entrance of American armies into Europe and the drafting of Americans to fight on foreign soil.

His statements declared that the majority of the people were with him in his stand.

Mayor Thompson's signed announcement follows:

"To the People of Illinois: In order that the people of this state may have an opportunity to vote on vital governmental policies involving the most precious rights of American citizens, I shall be a candidate at the primary in September, 1918, for Republican nomination for United States Senator to succeed J. Hamilton Lewis."

"I stand upon my record as a public official, my public addresses and my authorized public statements."

"In order that my candidacy may not be involved in the local election of aldermen in Chicago this spring, which I shall take no part in, for or against candidates for the city council, I shall withhold the announcement of my formal platform until after the next spring elections."

(Signed)

"WILLIAM HALE THOMPSON."

LONDON, Sept. 25.—Robert H. Skinner, the American consul general, has been instructed by Secretary of State Lansing to see that hereafter all sea-going vessels bound for the United States are provided with passports in September, 1918, for Republican nomination for United States Senator to succeed J. Hamilton Lewis.

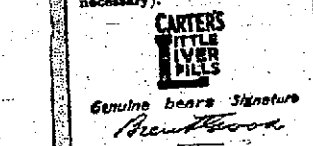

Those who are not so provided are subject to detention when they reach the United States. The documents must bear the photographs of the holders. This step is assumed here to be directed toward the suppression of possible espionage schemes.

STRICT LIMIT ON EXPORT OF GOLD

Federal Reserve Board Takes Action to Conserve Supply

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Regulations governing the exportation of gold, silver and currency, announced today by the Federal Reserve board, indicate that the government will restrict such exports to the minimum degree possible, where they cannot be avoided in settling trade balances.

The board announced as its general policy that it would not authorize the export of gold unless it could be shown that the gold was to pay for a corresponding importation of merchandise for consumption in this country.

"In any case," the announcement says, "authorization will be granted only where the exportation of gold, silver or currency is found to be compatible with the public interest."

The amount of gold which persons leaving the country may take with them was fixed at $200 for each adult. Five thousand dollars in addition may be taken in currency and $200 in silver or silver certificates without license.

The board's announcement, after stating the general policy, continues: "No bar into Canada."

"Until further notice, the board will approve all applications for the exportation of Canadian silver coin and currency without limitation. The treasury department has instructed collectors of customs to pass such shipments into Canada when approved by the Federal Reserve bank of the district from which shipments are made."

"Continuous permits for shipment of Canadian coin and currency without requiring an application in each case may be granted by Federal Reserve banks upon condition that each transaction will be reported to it without delay."

"Applications for the exportation of United States notes, national bank notes and Federal Reserve notes will as a rule be approved by the Federal Reserve board, but each application must come before the board for its determination before shipment is made."

"Instructions have been issued by the treasury department to collectors of customs to permit travelers leaving the country to carry on their person or in their baggage:

"United States notes, national bank notes and Federal Reserve notes, not to exceed $5,000 for each adult."

"American silver dollars, subsidiary silver coins and silver certificates not to exceed $500 for each adult."

"Gold coin or gold certificates not to exceed $200 for each adult."

"Collectors of customs have been informed that in dealing with travelers they may act in accordance with these regulations without communication with the Federal Reserve board or the Federal Reserve bank of the district."

"Shipments of coin or currency which appear to be or are suspected of being for enemy accounts or for the benefit of the enemy will not be permitted. These regulations are issued subject to change without notice and no application granted will be regarded as constituting a precedent."

MARMON DEALER BUYS HIMSELF A MAXWELL SEDAN

When a couple of live wires like J. C. Phelan and H. B. Reiter, Marmon dealer of San Francisco, get together something is likely to happen. Some one is going to buy a car and if there is no customer around the chances are that the flow of salesmanship will be so strong that even the salesman himself falls in the current.

Phelan went to San Francisco last week to arrange for the delivery of a Marmon Sedan to Mrs. Chester H. Rowell, but before he left Mr. Reiter had ordered from Phelan a Maxwell Sedan. "This exchange of orders was something more than a compliment to the Maxwell," said Phelan. "It was a recognition by the foremost salesman of high priced cars in California, of the fact that the Maxwell car has the necessary finish and style to keep company with the highest priced jobs."

THE WORLD WAR

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—A plea for concerted efforts to obtain a maximum production of coal during the war was made by Dr. H. A. Garfield, the fuel administrator, today at the opening of a conference of central fuel operators and miners to discuss a proposed wage increase.

"Under no circumstances," said Dr. Garfield, "must we allow production to stop. Our duty as American citizens is to produce all we can, just as it is the duty of American citizens in the ranks of the army to march ahead over the time."

The conference was called by John P. White, president of the American Fuel and Coal Association, after adjournment at Dr. Garfield's request of a conference at Indianapolis September 5. The minutes it is said, will ask a minimum of from $3 to $5.00 for day work and an increase of from $5 to $20 cents a ton in the rate for production work.

BERLIN, Sept. 25, via London.—Official announcement was made today that German aviators last night dropped bombs on the coast of London and on Dover, Southend, Chatham and Sheerness and also on Dunkirk, northern France. All the machines returned undamaged, the statement says.

PARIS, Sept. 25.—Captain George Guynemer, the famous French aviator, is believed to be dead.

Captain Guynemer, who attained world-wide fame by his exploits, was perhaps the most brilliant aviator of the war. He was last seen in action on September 19 for having won his fiftieth aerial victory. An unofficial press dispatch a few days earlier said he had accounted for 52 enemy machines. He was 21 years old.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Sept. 25.—Dr. Karl A. Sarrigard Graves, the Kaiser's personal "spy," and John Spert, an alien enemy, who were interned at army post here last Thursday, were taken from the fort under a heavy guard to Fort McPherson, Ga. It was announced today.

IRISH CONVENTION MEETS AT CORK

Sinn Fein Leaders Decide to Keep Hands Off

CORK, Ireland, Sept. 25.—The Irish convention reassembled here today. Though no definite arrangement yet has been reached with the Ulstermen, it is said that the speeches of some of their leaders, couched in very eloquent and friendly language, have given good grounds for hope of a peaceable settlement. There was some apprehension of opposition to the convention on the part of the Sinn Fein leaders in Cork, but John MacNeill and Arthur Griffith, the Sinn Fein leader, urged their followers in this city to follow the example of their Dublin compatriots and let the convention alone. About ninety delegates attended the first sitting here, with Sir Horace Plunkett in the chair. At the luncheon given by the harbor board, Charles Plunkett and other delegates spoke guardedly but hopefully of the convention's prospects.

PACIFIC COAST SPORTS

Northwestern football men, now with the engineers corps of the American army encamped at American Lake, Wash., are organizing a football eleven. Stanley Borleske, former coach of the Lincoln high school of Portland, Ore., and one-time member of the University of Michigan team, who is a captain in the corps, has been named captain of the team.

Behind the line will be Borleske at left half, Edward Ralston, formerly of the Gonzaga College team of Spokane, Wash., at right half, and Paul Campbell, a former Portland high school player, at quarter. The full back's position has not been filled.

According to present plans, the line will be composed of Ends, Second Line, Tackle, Tackle, End, and Fullback. Niles, a former star of the Columbia University of Portland, and William Montgomery of Oregon City, tackle. George Borman, formerly of Washington high school of Portland, and Frank Rickard, once of Notre Dame, guards. Don Cavley, former University of Oregon player, and Seymour Conner, who played against him on the Oregon Aggie team. The center will probably be Charles Swan of the North Central high school of Spokane, Wash. Ed Strowbridge of Portland will do the place kicking.

Dog owners of the Pacific Northwest have been invited to attend the trials of the Tenth Valley Field Trials Association, at North Yakima, Wash., September 25 and 26. The trials will be open to all dogs. Three stakes will be decided at the meet as follows: Derby, all-age and shooting dog. Dogs will run on mixed game, including cat, pheasant, Bob White and Hungarian pheasant.

Dartmouth's football eleven in all probability will represent the East, and play the University of Oregon or Washington State College in the annual intercollegiate football game at Pasadena, Cal., next New Year's Day. It is the belief of W. S. Klenholz, supervisor of agriculture of the Pasadena city schools, that Pasadena's Day in which the University of Oregon defeated the University of Pennsylvania.

"We would be more than pleased to have Oregon back again to fight for the West," Klenholz said recently, while in Oregon. "Because their 1916 squad was the most powerful aggregation, man for man, that we ever saw."

"Darkhorse" Newman, captain elect of the Oregon Agricultural College football team, has joined the Y. M. C. A. physical education department at Camp Lewis, American Lake, and will not be in uniform.

Marked by Their Great Variety

Everything that grows under the ground or rises out of it, to ripen in the sun or rains over it to fatten in the meadows, is gathered within the fenced acres of the eleventh annual Fresno District fair, gathered from the valley that in the long ago was a long reach of wind-blown will grasses and dry lands.

It is a visualization of the achievements of Fresno's "second line of defense." And as the passage through the streets of a long line of staid soldiers suggests the might of the military arm, the Fresno fair reveals the might of the American Colossus—the tiller of the soil, feeder of the earth.

From the hour set for the opening of the fair until the gates closed at night, great throngs swept into the grounds.

Every car dropped its quota at the gates and automobiles formed a steady stream which increased in volume as the morning lengthened into afternoon and the afternoon faded into night.

The play ground—the street of side shows and ball games and doll racks and hooded clowns—dark-skinned fortune tellers, and every manner of money getting device—was alive with shouting children all day long. There were "legless ladies" and "snake charming ladies" and "dancing who gave you chewing gum if you knocked the helmet off of the Kaiser"—for even there was found a touch of the war spirit—and one of the most popular pastimes of young America was trying to "hit the Kaiser"—another game.

And on beyond were all the products of the high Fresno district—even to the product of all babies. There were babies of every sort gathered weighed and measured for a prize—laughing babies, shouting babies, screaming babies.

And there were fancy work done by babies' mothers and old fashioned crazy quilts which used to give a last touch to the great Colonial four-posters. There was everything that grows and everything that's made by the fingers of women.

At no preceding fair, according to men who have seen them all, has there been such a comprehensive display of the products of Fresno's fields and orchards and vineyards; never before such an exhibit of thoroughbred livestock, sheep and hogs; never before such an extensive of valuable display of registered poultry.

There have been larger fairs holding a greater number of exhibits, but in quality and variety that this fair surpasses.

There are fewer horses, but better horses than in other years.

In the cattle division, there is an exhibit of Holstein-Friesian, Jersey and Guernsey. The exhibit of Poland-China hogs surpasses last year's showing; the Duroc-Jerseys are well represented. The exhibit of sheep is

R. S. Mulholland, retired farmer, 514 O St., Fresno, says: "I have used Dean's Kidney Pills off and on for the last ten years and they have always given excellent results. When I am on my feet too much it seems to weaken my kidneys and brings on attacks of lumbago and other kidney trouble. At times, when I stoop to put on my shoes in the morning, sharp pains catch me in the small of my back and I can hardly straighten. My kidneys act too freely and oblige me to get up several times at night. Dean's Kidney Pills always relieve these attacks and I feel fine after using them."

to the nation's cry of "can-can-can!"

"Food as well as cannons are needed in the present crisis," was the patriotic inscription above the shelves of canned fruits and jellies.

Great stalks of Indian corn and the different sorghums ornamented the entrances.

Another suggestion of the nation at war was found at the front of the Selma booth, where a miniature airplane labeled "Somewhere in France" swung suspended above a great collection of melons one of which weighed 70 pounds. It was in Selma's booth that 115 varieties of fruits and vegetables were displayed. It was on the huge Selma melon that Little Betty Berg, aged 5, sat and played "horsey." Betty weighed 21 pounds less than her melon-horse.

Over Selma's exhibit the name was inscribed with oranges set against orange leaves and Sanger has made a specialty this year of its plates of peaches—an exhibit remarkable for the number of varieties displayed and the size of the fruit.

A suggestion of a cabin of logs, houses the Clovis exhibit, the front and sides being left open to add beauty to the display. A great display of canned fruits and jellies is the chief feature of the Clovis exhibit. The central feature of the Fowler display is a sign bearing the words, "Fowler is backing"—completed by a life size figure of Uncle Sam, chieftain, ribbons which carry away in all directions to the choicest products of the Fowler region. Fowler also emphasizes a display of honey.

One of the most significant exhibits is made by the California Agricultural Clubs of school boys—significant because upon their shoulders the future of agricultural development.

Their booth is used mainly to display sorghums—the great need of the nation in arms. And no finer sorghums or melons are found in the fair than have been grown by the boys.

ARMENIA'S STORY IS TOLD IN TABLEUXUncle Sam Ends Centuries of Martyrdom in Plot of Play

Armenia's history was retold last night in five striking tableaux "presented in the open-air on a stage erected in front of the race-track grand stand at the Fair grounds. The tableaux depicted the five great tragedies in Armenian history and were arranged and enacted by the members of the Armenian Dramatic Society of Fresno.

The first tableau of the five portrayed the Christianization of the Armenians by the Apostle Thaddeus in the first century following the birth of Christ. The second scene pictured the invasion of Armenia several centuries later by the sun-worshipping Persians with the avowed purpose of establishing their belief in Armenia.
The third tableau depicted the orgies which the Turks forced upon the Armenian women and girls were censually subjected and which was the cause, finally of the Armenian revolutionary movement. The fourth tableau brought the story up to the present day and pictured the deportation of the Armenian people at the outset of the present war.

The closing tableau pictures a land of desolation and the remnant of a passing race which suddenly there comes a flash of sunlight and Uncle Sam bearing the Star Spangled Banner, steps forth as the protector of the smaller nations, the hand plays the national American anthem and

REGISTRATION NOW
ON AT HIGH SCHOOL

Registration is now proceeding at the high school. Yesterday 150 students enrolled. The registration is in charge of Victor Rohrer, Vice-Principal J. A. Nowell and George H. Bardeley. Great latitude is allowed the students in the choice of their classes. Students in former years, who are registering late have not the same choice of classes as those who register early.
Registrations will be accepted by mail or otherwise up to Friday. Superintendent Cross and Principal Smith are considering plans for extending the usefulness and scope, and so make it serve the public to the best advantage.

The school has been reorganized on the one-hour plan, and the whole program for the school has been remade, so that registration of last term for this term are of no use.

IN THE LODGE ROOM

Fresno Lodge, No. 188, met in regular session on Monday night. There was a good attendance. The third degree was conferred. E. M. Bishop was appointed to act with delegates from other lodges in the district to arrange for a committee meeting to be held soon. A committee was appointed to arrange for a Hot-loween social October 25. Admission will be by invitation.
This evening will be Odd Fellows' night at the Fair. Fresno Rebekah Lodge, No. 185, at Cavalier, Fresno, No.
20, will take part in the exercises in front of the grandstand at 8 p. m.
The Armenians are shown enjoying a newly acquired freedom as a reward for their centuries of martyrdom.

JEWS OBSERVE DAY
OF ATONEMENT
BY SERVICES

Dr. Louis G. Reynolds Speaks on "New Israel"

Thinks Differentiation Not Assimilation Result of War

Services in celebration of the fast of Yom Kippur, the Jewish Day of Atonement, were held at the Woodmen of the World hall last night when an address on "The New Israel" was given by Dr. Louis G. Reynolds, of Los Angeles, who conducted the services. Jews from all parts of the valley were present. A musical program formed part of the service.

Dr. Reynolds spoke, in part, as follows: "The great war is destined to become a crucible wherein the participating nations will be deeply and materially changed. No world catastrophe like the present can sweep over groups of nations without modifying and renewing the very foundations of their social and cultural life. And so it is safe to predict that after the last embers of this great conflagration have died away there will arise a new Germany, a new France, a new England and a new Russia, perhaps even a new America.

"There will be no loss, not even a diminution of identity but there will be new viewpoints, new conceptions, new ways of attacking and solving problems, new evaluations of political groups and economic principles. The human mind will be rudely shaken from its accustomed grooves and traditional paths, and will be launched upon new and unfamiliar highways.

"I expect first of all there will be a tremendous change in our old ideas as to the relative value of human groups. We have been accustomed to believe that the small group or nationally, no matter how highly differentiated or how highly valuable from a cultural point of view, has no inherent right to exist, and that it must give way to the supposedly higher claims of the larger groups, and that whenever called upon by a larger group it must either voluntarily commit suicide or allow itself to be exterminated."

Dr. Reynolds went on to point out how the aggression of the German empire has brought about the war. "This idea," he said, "was bound to disappear. Every human group, no right to self expression.

Small Groups Gave Culture.
"All modern culture," Dr. Reynolds continued, "has come from three small groups: Egypt, Greece and Judea. The most valuable element of our culture, social justice, has come from the very small Jewish group, which throughout its history has valiantly fought for the right of self-expression and for the maintenance and perpetuation of its culture.

"Believing then as we do that such a change as this in the ideas and conceptions of humanity is bound to come, we may safely predict the coming of a new Israel. It will not be an Israel with a new identity, but an Israel not suppressed or subverted, an Israel whose group culture and group genius will be allowed free scope for development. This characteristic development is one of the most valuable items in human progress.

"The new forces as they will come out of the crucible will be aligned not along cosmopolitan, but national lines, and that the new slogan will be not assimilation but differentiation."
The services will be continued today, the first service taking place in the Woodmen of the World hall at 10 o'clock a. m., and the final service in the afternoon in the same place at 3 o'clock.

Servants Conclude Today.
Following are the musical programs for the concluding services of the fast,

do Al Krei," "Ets Chayim."

MILK PRODUCERS DIRECTORS MEET

Open Booth at Fair Grounds to Promote Work of Organization

Gratifying results from the work of the association in the field was reported at the meeting of the board of directors of the San Joaquin Valley Milk Producers' Association held at the offices of the association, 217-219 Cory building last night.

Manager A. H. Massey explained that there has been a shortage in milk, and he stated that this shortage was getting worse. The object of the association was to help that situation, he said, by seeing that the producer of milk and other dairy products gets a satisfactory return for his labor and goods, and to sell these products at a reasonable figure to the consumer.

In order to secure these advantages to the producer and the consumer it is proposed, said Massey, to encourage the members of the association to facilitate production, to standardize and to develop their product for the market, and to find the market for the product.

A tent has been opened at the Fair grounds, and the manager invites all dairymen and others interested in dairy products to call, and the objects of the association will be explained. The tent is situated at the north end of the cattle barns.

FRESNO C. OF C. TO ISSUE LITERATURE

Sacramento Exhibit Is to Be Seen in Part at District Fair

Yesterday, officials of the Chamber of Commerce took final action in the matter of providing for the winter activities of the organization and for the furnishing of literature that shall be educational in all matters pertaining to the development of the county.

One of the first accomplishments of the chamber is to be the publication of pocket maps of the county, of the city and the road map so prized by the man with the automobile. The first of the plate work and the composition for these maps have been completed and it is now up to the printer to make it possible for the chamber to furnish this publicity feature that is constantly in demand.

Yesterday, the chamber work was busy with the installation of the county exhibit, brought here from the state fair, delayed in transit. The county does not go into competition with other exhibitors, but the reservation of the chamber is utilized by the individual exhibitor to present his specialty to advantage, with the proper setting.

The exhibit that won so many prizes and awards at the state exposition will be in position late this afternoon.

Lillian Russell's Beauty Talks

WHAT THE DRAFT TEACHES.

(Copyright, 1917, by Lillian Russell.) The middle states have been asleep as to the seriousness of this great war. It has been very difficult to awaken the minds of the women to the fact that a real war exists and a greater danger instead of less in its importance to them. I have had little patience with them when they passed such lame remarks as "Oh, I don't think it will amount to much. It will all be over in September." Here is September and what is the result? At least their awakenings have come. Brothers and sweethearts torn from their homes by the force of their country's necessity and sent to other parts of the country for months of military training—and then to foreign lands to fight—not for another country's protection alone, but for their own liberty. That they may enjoy the prosperity this country has given them. The mothers weep and wait in their distress—but out of that distress comes their awakening.

Now they realize that there is great work for them to do. Beginning with the making of food, and the making of garments for those boys.

Many of these mothers have given up thought to the sons of other mothers who enlisted and went abroad with the first sound of danger—and are at this moment with our expeditious forces on the field of battle—somewhere in France. Now they will brush the cobwebs of selfishness from their brains and permit a little sympathy to reach their hearts. Their boys are with other mothers' boys—working and training, side by side, during, suffering, perhaps, but also enjoying the work.

Learning discipline and obedience—and above all patriotism, which will inspire them to protect their homes and mothers, sisters and younger brothers from a common enemy.

Now the women will really work—they are so much to do. They buy needs a woolen helmet for night duty or for sleeping out of doors cold nights. A woolen muffler or sweater to keep him warm under his uniform. Long knitted scarves that can be worn over his hands. Many of them want tobacco. They want books, magazines and all sorts of comforts, as well as necessities that are not issued by our government. Winter is upon them in some parts of France and Belgium even now.

What mother would forgive herself if she indulged herself while her son was suffering for either warmth or food over there? We can all do with much, much less here in our warm homes. We need not eat white bread every day—nor require more than three times a week. Beans, dried peas and corn should be considered for use abroad. Sugar, starch and all grain should be used in small quantities. Other countries are forced to live on one-tenth of what they have been accustomed to. Why should not we be willing to deny ourselves at least one-third? Of course the mothers will—and the others should be compelled to. In one way it is a great blessing, for the majority of American families waste more than they eat, and always have in this prolific country.

A few intelligent ones have been working ever since the war began to do their bit without bickering. Just from a sheer sense of justice and a desire to help those brave boys who are so faithfully helping them.

Mothers, old maids, wives and sweethearts and sisters must now combine to work with all their loving might to supply every boy, every man, from the want of comfort, internally or externally, this winter. Our Christmas boxes should be got ready at once and sent abroad as early as possible. Each box should be made of strong khaki, fourteen inches square, and should contain one woolen garment, muffler, helmet, mittens or awl, a package of tobacco, pipe, a small tin box of hard candies, a box of writing paper and pencil, a couple of handkerchiefs and a book.

These are absolute necessities and are easy to send; so waste no time in discussion, but get to work at once and make our boys happy. They are all our boys—no matter how they were born or of whom—and we are all their mothers.

The Easiest Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This dissolves it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have. You will find, too, that all itching and itching of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This remedy has never been known to fail.

- California Oil -

FIGURES SHOW BIG SHORTAGE IN OIL

Attention Is Called to Acuteness of Situation in State

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—Attention has again been directed to the acute situation in the California oil industry by the refusal of Senator Hastings of Wisconsin to allow the Walsh mineral lands leasing bill to come up for consideration in the Senate on Saturday last, says the Chronicle. The passage of this bill, which was designed to give a measure of relief to California oil elements ousted from mineral reserve No. 2 by the withdrawal order and to open oil lands for use, so as to narrow the gap between production and consumption in this state, would have had a favorable effect on the position of many California oil companies, whose shares have been inactive in the stock market for a long time, pending the outcome of the withdrawal litigation.

While consumption has been exceeding production in the country as a whole at the rate of about 35,000,000 barrels a year, the situation in California has been more acute than in most other petroleum producing sections. The depletion of California storage stock has been such as to cause alarm as to the effect on Pacific coast industries, and with the legislation designed to speed up production effectively blocked, as dispatches from Washington intimate, the outlook is bad for any improvement in the situation.

Total crude oil stocks in California on August 31 were 32,317,000 barrels, according to Standard Oil statistics, as compared with 44,036,000 barrels at the first of the year, a decline of approximately 9,000,000 barrels for the first eight months of the present year.

Government officials in charge of the withdrawal litigation have at various times contended that the purpose of the act against California claimants to land in naval reserve No. 2 was to provide a reserve for future requirements of the navy. The argument that the reserve would be slowly drained so long as extraction continued on adjacent territory, which was advanced by practical oil men, has carried little weight with the government. In fact it has been practically ignored, oil men say, despite the present emergency, which they maintain is as great as any likely to occur in the future.

LEASING BILL DELAY AFFECTS OIL SHARES

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—The depressive effect of adverse legislation on market prices is shown in the selling movement of Honolulu Consolidated shares. This depression was brought about by the failure of the Senate to take up the Walsh mineral lands leasing bill at the close of the session last week. The stock was offered freely on the Stock and Bond Exchange yesterday on the news from Washington published in The Chronicle on Sunday, with the price declining from around 4 1/2 to 4. Private advices received from Washington in the local financial district yesterday said that the probability of the mineral lands leasing bill coming up again at the present session of Congress was not so remote as earlier dispatches would seem to indicate.

MEXICAN EXPORTS ARE INCREASING

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—Oil exportations through the ports of Tampico and Tuxtepec have gradually increased until they now aggregate about 1,500,000 barrels a month. Exports are being made for extensive new development operations in the different fields of the Tampico region. Equipment for boring wells and materials for the laying of pipe lines, as well as pumping plant material, are being brought to Tampico on each month's monthly steamer.

Plans are said to be on foot for the construction of several large refineries and for the construction of many miles of new pipe lines.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—Details concerning the treatment by the Germans of British prisoners in Germany East Africa are contained in a White paper just issued. The paper contains a mass of testimony recited by prisoners and others, including a number of women, to the effect that the Germans deliberately adopted a policy to lower the prestige of the British in the eyes of the natives, forcing them to do all manner of degrading work and subjecting them to terrible hardships without proper food, clothing and shelter.

LAKEVIEW GUSHER IS AGAIN ACTIVE

Starts Producing Immense Amount of Gas After Long Idleness

MAHOGOPA, Sept. 25.—After a lapse of three years, the once-famous Lakeview No. 2 gusher started producing a tremendous amount of gas Sunday, and nearly all day the pressure stood at more than 500 pounds pressure. Work which had progressed for some months on the well was completed and the sand was drilled into for a short distance on Saturday and partly bridged up, and on Sunday, when the boiler was run into the pipe, the bridge broke loose and sent the gusher up clear of the casing and the gas flowed freely for a short time until the gates, which were supplied in case of such an event, could be shut off. The flow was then controlled and after gassing for a time the well started flowing a dry oil and gas rock. The flow of oil sand continues the company officials said as soon as the well can clear itself that a good flow of oil will be had.

The Lakeview No. 2 well and the original Lakeview gusher have been the two most spectacular wells in the United States, and while the Lakeview No. 2 produced a greater volume of oil per day for a time, its production amounted to only about a third of that of the Lakeview gusher. The Lakeview No. 2 well produced for a period of five months and its maximum production reached as much as 100,000 barrels a day and the total production was more than 4,500,000 barrels. The Lakeview gusher produced a period of seventeen months and for the maximum flow per day set up a record of 30,000 barrels with a total production of 2,000,000 barrels of oil.

On account of the fact that the hard work of restoring the Lakeview No. 2 well in the face of the difficulties left when the well quit flowing, Superintendent Leroy Brown, after nearly two years of work only succeeded in clearing the hole of all pipe and obstacles and again drilled into the sand that produced the great gusher. The well was one of the pioneer wells on the Maricopa flat, and started a big era of development on sections 4 and 5-11-22 and 32-2-23. The shutting off of the water in the well was accomplished with great success, and went to show that the claim that the hole was watering the great producing sand on the flat, was unfounded. This was proven by the fact that when the exact depth at which the former flow was struck was reached, the gas heaved the drilling water out of the hole and also heaved great amounts of oil to the surface.

Children Admitted Free on Presenting Coupons

Disappointed children who failed to get their booster buttons in time will still have the chance to visit the fair on three days free of charge by clipping out the attached coupon and presenting it to the man at the gate.

The response to the offer of the Fresno Republican to give Booster Buttons to children under thirteen, has been so great that the supply of buttons gave out before the opening day of the fair.

In order that the children who have not had the chance to get the buttons will not be disappointed the Republican has arranged to print the coupon you see below, which will entitle all children to admission. Just as the booster buttons do.

There is going to be a good time in store for the children—the fair opening big yesterday and every day there will be something to amuse and delight them.

There will be races and bands and all kinds of things for them to see. It will be a round of pleasure from the time they enter the grounds until they go home at night. They must not forget the fireworks at night either for they will be the best of all.

Just cut out the coupon you see below and bring it to the fair and you can get in just as if you had the booster button pinned on your coat.

There's something every day that the children will enjoy. Today is Fresno day and everyone is going. There will be horse racing and a burlesque circus and day fireworks and there will be plenty to see and to do along the Jazz Carnival; and in the evening at 8:30 are the big fireworks and a light between a submarine and battleship.

Tomorrow there will be his features too. Something to see and do every minute. Friday will be Athletic day when there will be all kinds of games and races and sports, and day and night fireworks with plenty of music all the time.

And the best of it is that it will be free to the children under thirteen who come bringing the coupon attached. They are going to have a chance to see this big wonderful show without costing them a cent to get in.

PETROGRAD, Sept. 24—(Delayed)—Minister of Foreign Affairs Terestchenko today issued the following statement:

"Rumors published recently by the newspapers in various countries regarding peace negotiations said to have been initiated by certain powers are entirely false. Equally devoid of foundation are reports attributing any particular importance to the conference in Bern, which has been convoked by the so-called 'alliance' for the realization of durable peace, with which neither the Russian government nor her allies had anything to do."

RED CROSS THANKFUL BOXES ARE SOURCE OF REVENUE FOR CHAPTER TREASURY; OLD SHOE DRIVE NOW ON

Directors Report Apportionment of Near One Thousand Dollars as Pro-Rata for Fresno Chapter and Auxiliaries of War Fund Offering in County

It was an interesting little story that developed yesterday afternoon at the monthly meeting of the Fresno chapter of the Red Cross, held at the council chamber, city hall.

President Glass had called for reports from special committees. Mrs. George H. Aiken was telling of the effect for which she is responsible, the effort to supplement the funds of the Red Cross treasury by means of the little "glad and thankful" boxes that have been distributed among the business houses of the city.

Owing to her inability to secure the desired number of boxes, she was forced to be content with the ten available on August 5, at which time a station was selected for each of the boxes, in department stores, in banks and at the post office.

On September 20 Mrs. Aiken made the rounds of her boxes and in the contents found she had $59.24 in turn over to the Fresno chapter treasury.

But this is not the most interesting feature of the story of the "glad and thankful" boxes—the real story lies in the amount found in some of them, and compared to the amount found in the others.

In three of the boxes of the city, three of the boxes had been placed—in the money atmosphere, where the only commodity handled was money, or its equivalent. In these three boxes there was found the aggregate of $1.25—two cents in one, 56 cents in another and 67 cents in the third.

At the post office, the gladness and thankfulness of the people was given expression in the sum of $37.75.

With this encouragement, Mrs. Aiken was authorized by the directors of the Fresno chapter to extend the work, securing more of the larger boxes for the business houses of the city, and to place the individual box in every home, and one for every member of the home, where the thankful idea may be given favor.

The individual boxes are to be of heavy cardboard, securely glued, provided with slot and to bear some printed exhortation to the remembrance that shall prompt the sacrifice that is to enrich the Red Cross treasury. These boxes will also bear the appealing Red Cross emblem.

The boxes now having a place in the banks are to be withdrawn and given again in the leading clubs of the city.

About Old Shoes.

Have you any old shoes to spare? If so, the Fresno chapter and all auxiliaries want 'em, even if there be but the "unners" left to suggest the existence, at one time, of a real shoe.

These shoes are wanted for the needy people of Belgium, yes and for France. Overseas it is almost impossible to secure leather and the shoe has long since become a luxury. The gold of the winter months is now due and the people are bare of foot. Your old shoes may mean a great deal to some worthy man or woman. If there is but the upper, the colder of the war zone will put on the wooden sole and thank some stranger for the gift of the upper.

If there is the generous impulse, if the shoe is repaired and turned in to the Red Cross old shoe committee, then it will be that some of the bare feet of the old country will be well shod for the winter months.

Appeal Made Personal.

This old shoe movement is due to the appeal made by Arthur Hutchinson, who through friends in France, had been put in touch with conditions abroad and to whom the idea has been emphasized.

In selecting his old shoe committee, President Glass named Mr. Hutchinson as chairman, who will be assisted by George Osborn and Sig Levy.

And the admonition is: "Please tie the shoes of each pair together."

The plan of campaign for the collection of the discarded shoe is to be carried out by the committee.

It was stated, for the benefit of the chapter directors, that the city school authorities have expressed a willingness to co-operate with the Red Cross management in any and all of the undertakings that have for their aim the increasing of the Red Cross treasury.

This means that the schools may be called upon to aid in the canvass for old papers, for tin-foil and for old shoes, the discarded "treasures" to be taken to the schools by the students and there picked up by the trucks of the institutions handling the product of the several canvasses.

Condition of Treasury.

Despite the constant drain upon the treasury, the funds of the Fresno chapter were reported to be in splendid condition, there being a balance in the bank of $812.77. And near a thousand dollars has been spent in the purchase of materials for use in the J street work rooms, the winners of the Military Order of the Purple Heart, forming the work as a labor of love and devotion and of loyalty, their only compensation being the commendation of a work well done—the commendation of the experts of the American Red Cross at Washington, D. C.

In the granting of the allowances to relieve the amounts paid in by each chapter on the War Fund, the Fresno chapter came in for a grant of $99.75, twenty per cent of the amount raised in cash in this county. The auxiliaries are to be given their proportion in the distribution of funds.

Civilian Relief.

With the departure of troops from all parts of the county, the matter of civilian relief has been brought to the attention of the Fresno chapter by the national authorities. This is in the hands of Rev. W. T. Giffen and his fellow committee men, the organization including, C. D. Collins as secretary.

Mr. Giffen announced that his committee is ready for business, which means that the very organization must be in the nature of a constant appeal to those unable to go to the front and who have the means to help, care for those left dependent by those so unfortunate as to be counted fit for the service of sacrifice.

Thus far there has been but one appeal for aid, made necessary by the withdrawal, by the government, of the home provider. It was stated that this work is not in the nature of a charity—the rather but the payment, in part, of a debt that the government owes the individual joining the colors.

The chapter directors voted Mr. Giffen's committee $100 for emergency purposes.

For A. H. Buay.

E. H. Vaitall, chairman of the Military Auxiliary committee, reported that his forces at the factory are again busy, following the few days of respite due to the shipment of supplies, and that there are now 250 women engaged in the making of the knit garments for the soldier boys.

Mr. Vaitall also stated that he is in difficulties in the matter of securing the needed yarn. The mills of the country are seven months behind on all orders and the price of yarn has increased fifty per cent. The plan now is to buy the inferior quality of yarn for the present, until the better supply can be secured.

Other Activities Reported.

E. A. von Hasselbocher, chairman of the Red Cross canteen committee, reported on the feeding of the soldiers passing through the city and of those leaving from the county. He had high praise for the women responding so generously and generally in the matter of assisting in the great undertaking.

The members of the committee, to assist Mr. von Hasselbocher in his work have not yet been named.

George Osborn reported that with the reopening of the schools the matter of organizing the Junior Red Cross auxiliary was to be undertaken.

Mr. Glass reported on chapter work generally and on the Treasury report, organization in auxiliary in particular.

Mrs. W. J. Griffith announced the abandonment of the "meeting pot" undertaking, for the canvass for old jewelry, until some simple plan of operation can be worked out.

It was alleged that the Japanese was kicked and that he received internal injuries from which he died five hours later.

The public prosecutor recommended penal servitude for ten years. The fine was imposed in connection with a civil action instituted by the family of the victim.

BABY SHOW IS OPENED Start Judging 100 Entries

If fair exhibitors and fair spectators were seemingly happy and content on the first day, there was an element of discord that sounded loud, discord that began discord, and ending in volume was the source of attraction to the locale of its inception that was as good as any hawk for a carnival concession. In other words, everybody enjoyed the baby show, but the babies, and it was a cruel world for them. The show has been limited to 100 entries, these same to appear in divisions during the five days of the fair.

CONSERVATION IS FEATURED IN WOMEN'S SECTION OF FAIR

Exquisite Needlework Is Also to Be Found. Oriental Rug Is Shown in the Making; Many Beautiful Plants and Flowers

Patriotism is so infused in the atmosphere of the country that expressions of it are being found in the most unexpected places and in surprising ways. With the annual District Fair "on" in full blast, there crops up with other harvests this flower of freedom. In the women's department, whose exhibit is housed in the second floor of the main pavilion, there are bedroom sets shown, with other pieces of needlework, whose adornment is the national emblem, and a flag crocheted in colors is featured prominently in an exhibit of cushions.

Conservation of resources is featured largely, and an alluring array of glass-ware, bear seal labels that are unnecessary, for through the transparent walls gleam exquisitely preserved fruits and vegetables, and jellies that are as transparent as the glasses containing them. Herbert C. Hoover would have beamed on that display with approval.

Along with the patriotic bedroom sets, there were some other bed coverings that were very beautiful. Crocheted spreads, some in the definite patterns of the flit mesh, and others less conventional hang as wall coverings, and at least one knitted spread of heavy texture, evincing admiration of the feminine contingent. Of tiffed cotton a pattern is made on muslin for another spread, and variety was added to the ensemble in a spread of unbleached muslin with fleeces, appliques of blue and further embellished with a simple adornment of French knots.

An exquisite piece of handwork which represents two years' labor and is now about a third completed, is an Oriental rug of exquisite pattern and color combination which is being made by Mrs. John A. Arkelian of this city. Connoisseurs have valued the unfinished bit at $2000. The materials in its manufacture are all silk, and during its exhibition at the fair and during the process.

A whole case of exquisite needlework, including various kinds of embroidery, is sponsored by Miss Fannie Rosendahl, whose particular set of six pieces in needlework is among the most admired things in this department.

Mrs. W. L. Rayney is in charge of the department, and is responsible in part for the excellent arrangement of the exhibit.

In the educational department, the spirit of loyalty to the country is stirred by a water color sketch of the President of the United States, which is the exhibit of John Henry Lyons and one of a group of several exhibited which are attributed to him.

A. A. Sorenson, who is in charge of the department, explains the smallness of the exhibits to the fact that the school is not yet reopened after the summer interval, although the number of independent entries this year exceeds that of previous fair seasons.

A display of toy automobiles carved from wood is the clever work of two young boys, Edwin Crawford and Julius Miller.

Undoubtedly one of the most attractive of the buildings is that in which are being shown plants and flowers. The interior is sparsely furnished, and with professional skill several of the booths have been converted into hothouses of bloom and foliage in semi-tropical effect. Example of "set" pieces are exhibitions of the florist's art, and corsage and bridal bouquets, and with professional skill several of the booths have been converted into hothouses of bloom and foliage in semi-tropical effect.

RED CROSS IN ACTION AT FAIR

Relief Work and Ministrations Demonstrated

With the close of the Fresno District Fair the great Red Cross idea, as exemplified in hospital, in the workroom and in the sacrifices that are being made by the elect women of this county is to be better understood by the people generally, as a result of a demonstration of daily occurrence out at the District Fair grounds.

Under the direction of Mrs. Al Braverman, Miss Clark Farley and Miss Laura McCordie, there has been created one of the most attractive of booths where the military relief work is to be exemplified for every hour of the fair.

Here, there has been installed all of the paraphernalia peculiar to the making of the supplies needed at the Red Cross hospitals made necessary by this world war and here the women of the committee who have been giving of their time and talent in the manufacture of supplies are to demonstrate to the fair, thousands just how it is done and to what end.

The booth has been most tastefully and appealingly decorated with the red and the white that suggest the helpful hand and the ministrations that know nothing of nationality or of the differences that are created by environment.

Scattered about the booth are "dummies" dressed in the garments that are of manufacture at the workrooms of the chapter, and the auxiliaries, and at several points there have been placed the necessary putting tables and sewing machines, all in operation and in use by some of the women who for months have given their time to the work that has been accomplished at the district fair.

In the showcases that have also been given place there is an exhibition of the work of the Red Cross chapter. There are also pictures that at a glance tell of the services that have been rendered to the enrichment of the Red Cross program and to the making of the garments that are being made for the Red Cross.

For all of the exhibition hours, there are to be attendants at the booth to make plain to all inquirers the nature of the work—the uses to be made of the garments and to tell of something of the sacrifices that are being made in the end that there may be no lack when the hospital becomes the place of refuge.

Yesterday, aside from those entrusted with the supervision of the booth, those assisting included Miss M. R. Harris, Mrs. L. R. Witt and Mrs. D. E. Hurley.

And these women, for this first day of the fair, were made to realize that everything pertaining to the Red Cross is of peculiar interest to both men and women, for the fall of the booth was crowded throughout the day and the questions asked and the interest shown were of a nature to cause wonder.

Just across the street—the little fair-site street—there is a demonstration something of the actual work of the Red Cross in hospital in the care given the wounded and afflicted.

Here a series of tents have been erected along the line of the tents that are in evidence back of the lines. Here, Miss M. R. Harris, a graduate Red Cross nurse, garbed in the clothing of her calling, is in charge, and yesterday, almost with the opening hours, she was called upon to minister to one in instant need of her services.

Here, too, the crowd seemed to center, for all wanted to witness something of all that is suggested where the white-clothed nurse is wearing the cross of red, is in supreme command.

Here, too, the Red Cross hospital tent there is located another group of tents for the accommodation of the men who have had their experience upon the fields of battle. Here the Grand Army men are to assemble and here the old camp life is to be depicted. This, for the adding of the realistic touch to the Red Cross demonstration.

Knitting in Evidence

At the Red Cross booth proper, from day to day, there is to be given demonstration in knitting, the experts in this line of Red Cross endeavor taking advantage of this opportunity to seek the arousing of interest in the extension of their work.

And to make this knitting appeal more pointed, some of the women of the knitting section, under the leadership of Mrs. O. D. Bergeron, have manufactured some of the most fetching of knitting bags, bags that for color put the rest of Joseph and the robes of Solomon in the shade.

These knitting bags are to be sold for the benefit of the knitting fund, Fresno chapter, Red Cross.

The Fresno chapter Red Cross officials are most insistent in asking that every woman visiting the fair make a call at the Red Cross booth and there become better acquainted with the working of the organization.

The present call for workers in the factories of the Red Cross is most urgent, the Washington authorities

Throughout the lecture, the thrill that it is Dr. Raymond's ability to create in the portrayal of strange lands and customs, accompanied by the pictures due to his own art. The lecture was an entertainment and instruction for all in attendance—and the high school boys were privileged to gain in university credits against his later entry at the state institution, a privilege that was taken advantage of by many of the earnest students of the Fresno institution.

At the close of the lecture, the center officials appointed a committee to nominate officers for the coming year. This committee includes Henry Hansen, W. P. Thompson, Chas. Jayne and John A. Newell.

Whoever was responsible for "Come Through" surely had the true sense of the dramatic. And George Bronson Howard is the responsible person. He pulls the wool over the eyes of the spectator, brings in each character deftly, holds them properly and reveals what everyone thinks is just going to be a regulation plot. Shuck! He's going to marry the girl!

Exactly—not! You're just ready to say shuck! some old plot. But, wait! comes a skilful twist, a new angle is introduced and the amazed spectator sees unfolded a new plot, a new scheme that is a whole brand new story idea that does some real riveting to the steepest person's chair. And He Makes Her Marry the Wrong Man. Complications are many and unusual, with the wealthy lover blundering into the most sensational stunt ever pulled—that of making his own sweetheart marry the wrong man. And the wrong man is none other than "Jimmie the Possum." Isn't that some situation?

NEW SHOW AT PLAZA TONIGHT

Starting tonight, the Will King Company at the Plaza will present another of their popular reviews entitled "The Very Idea."

In the second half of the program, will show the aeroplane battle over the battle lines "somewhere in France."

With the number of pretty and shapely girls which King has in his support, it is no wonder that the admirers of real feminine beauty are thronging nightly to the Plaza to see the clever chorus cavort through their tuneful capers, while those who enjoy a hearty laugh are more than convulsed at the absurd antics and ridiculous situations in which Will King as Key Lashinski and his battalion of comedians and comedienne enmesh and extricate themselves.

The full strength of the excellent cast, together with some artistic scenery, not to mention the new creations in costumes, will be employed to make "The Very Idea" one of the funniest and most pleasing entertainments the company has yet offered.

On Friday night, as an added feature, the "Chorus Girls' Contest" will be held. Those who enjoyed the clever work of the girls last Friday will again witness their favorites in some new specialties for the cleverest of which cash prizes will be offered.

Also a good Keystone comedy and Weekly No. 111 World's Events in motion.

Friday and Saturday bring Gail Kane in "The Upper Crust."

In this you see a comedy drama that will tickle and amuse the whole family, from start to finish. Gail Kane as Mollie O'Brien takes the part of a venturesome first girl and falls in love with the son of her mistress. The comedy situations are extra good along a new line. You will see the millionaire son, who is ambitious, start out in the world with his burro outfit, peddling corn cobs to suffering humanity, and they all live up and call him blessed for something else. (If this burlesque should tank up on gasoline instead of hay, you will see the makers of history, presidents and scandal at the country cross roads store, attempt to start a bulky horse, each telling the other how it should be done, but they all fail; the corn cobs peddler comes along and solves the situation, by getting the horse started in a unique way, and by the way the horse makes a home run. The rest is too good to tell, see it and enjoy more laughs than you have had in many a day. Also, a good comedy and Real Life No. 68, educational.

MUSICAL SUCCESS AT WHITE SUNDAY

In a class by itself is Irving Berlin's International syncopated musical success, "Watch Your Step," which will be the attraction at the White theater next Sunday night, September 30, for a limited engagement of two nights only.

It is claimed to be a wonderful show in many respects. Musical to a superlative degree, tuneful, charming and notable for its fine features and beautiful novel scenery. As a combination of enchanting song and dance, with interspersions of comedy lines and situations, "Watch Your Step" has a rightful claim to eminent rank.

It has everything that is amazing in its technique, exceptional in its story and its originality. Its scenic effects of the three acts and seven scenes are novel and built on the urban plan. The company carry their own orchestra, which will be augmented by the local theater orchestra.

"What Next" with Blanche Ring coming. In its originality, its beautiful costumes, its puppets dialogue and its humorous situations, "What Next," the new Oliver Morosco musical comedy success coming to the White theater, October 1-3, is reminiscent of "Canary Cottage" and "So Long Let's."

How to Keep Well; Talks on Health

By DR. W. A. EVANS

PAINTERS' PERILS.

Are you a painter? Does your work bring you in contact with lead, turpentine, or benzine? Or is your husband or any relative a painter? If the answer to either of these questions is yes, then you are interested in some facts brought out in an investigation made by the New York City health department.

The facts may be a little misleading, for the following reason: The health department sent out 26,000 questionnaires and tried to get every painter in the city to submit to an examination. Only 23,000 returned. Those who stayed away might have done so because they knew they were sick or on the other hand, because they thought themselves well. Then let us understand that the following results were obtained by examination of 23,000 painters. Just how far the conclusions drawn can be applied to the trade in general remains to be decided.

Of the 23,000, 117 had some one or more signs of lead poisoning; 116 had none.

The report calls attention to certain bad conditions under which painters work. Speaking generally, they work in places where there is a poor supply of drinking water, poor toilet facilities, and no washing facilities. They are compelled to eat in the place where they work. They store their dirty clothes in the rooms where they are working.

In its originality, its beautiful costumes, its puppets dialogue and its humorous situations, "What Next," the new Oliver Morosco musical comedy success coming to the White theater, October 1-3, is reminiscent of "Canary Cottage" and "So Long Let's."

MEDICAL SERVICE WORKING WELLGerman Story About Trouble on French Front Disproved

BRITISH HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE AND BELGIUM, Sept. 14. (By mail.)—German agents recently have been spreading broadcast on the continent the report that serious differences have arisen between the British medical service and the American surgeons and physicians working with the British forces in France. The story has been given special publicity by its sponsors in Belgium and France. For the purpose of proving or disproving the statement, the correspondent of the Associated Press accredited to British general headquarters has made a careful investigation of the facts, visiting not only the hospitals which have been taken by American medical units, but casualty clearing stations in which American surgeons are working. Here is the truth:

The utmost cordiality has and does exist between the British medical service and the American who are working with them. The assertion that there has been any quarrel between the two bodies is without foundation. As one eminent American has put it:

"The story is a gross error. The reasons for circulating it are obvious. The Germans are trying to create among Belgian and French civilians a contempt for America and Great Britain and consequently a hostility toward these two nations."

The six medical units which were sent over from the United States to take charge of six British base hospitals have become a part of the smoothly running organization that the British have developed.

The excellent work being done by the American units has frequently been the subject of the most complimentary remarks by all ranks of the British medical organization. The American medical workers from the United States have performed in a characteristic way one of the highest spots in the war which is causing so much misery.

Roughly speaking the six base hospitals conducted by the Americans have beds for about 1,500 patients and there are many times when they are filled to overflowing.

SIAMESE TROOPS FOR WESTERN FRONT

LONDON, Sept. 25.—The Siamese government, according to a dispatch from Bangkok, has called for volunteers who may be sent to the western front. The volunteers, the dispatch says, will be commanded by officers trained in Belgium.

There were signs of lead poisoning, the urine was nearly certain to give a test for lead.

Sixty-three of the men examined complained of symptoms attributable to poisoning by turpentine or benzine or both. Some told of being suddenly fainting or becoming faint, while at work in confined or ill-ventilated places. Some suffered from nausea, vertigo or headache. In a number of instances men told of falling from ladders or scaffolding as a result of being overcome by the fumes of turpentine. Generally the painters were disposed to complain more of turpentine than of lead. The symptoms of turpentine poisoning are impressive; those of lead poisoning are subtle and insidious.

It was found that painters do not live long. Men enter the trade early. In most cases they had never had any other trade before becoming painters. Having become painters, they stuck until it got them, and it got them in most cases before the average age for disability and death. Essentially the precautions required for painters to prevent poisoning are cleanliness of the skin, and especially the hands, getting with clean hands away from the workshop, refraining from the use of tobacco, and good ventilation in the work place.

Train your mind

"I have been told that I have neurasthenia, but would like your opinion. My symptoms are dizziness, periods of depression, lack of mental concentration (this seems to be my principal trouble), and at times a choking sensation in my throat which is only relieved by a fit of crying. I am also bothered with pains in my chest which move about at various points. I will be troubled with one of these spells and others will keep occurring in succession until they seem to reach a climax and I am practically all in. I have a better for a while. Do you think I have neurasthenia? A course in physical culture with special diet has been advised. Will it cure me? What had I better do? I am a man 23 years of age and have always been in good health and taken good care of myself. I am employed in a factory where I work at a machine ten hours a day and in the last three months have put in considerable overtime."

REPLY.

You are either neurasthenic or hysterical. A course in physical culture may help you, but it will not cure you. Neurasthenia and hysteria can only be cured by mental training, since they are the result of bad mental habits.

Bunion Sufferers

E. L. writes: "I am 12 years of age. Since about a year ago I have a bunion. It gradually grew larger, and is now quite big, and lately it hurts in the morning when I put on my shoes. I have been rubbing it with mustard and there is a blister on it now. Please tell me if it can be cured and if it cannot be cured how can it be prevented from becoming larger?"

REPLY.

We get a great many letters about bunions. We have picked this one for an answer because you developed this bunion when you were 12 years old. Bunions grow from wearing tight shoes, especially those which pinch the toes together at the front. A pointed shoe draws the front end of the toes together. This throws the back end out and widens the ball at the foot. When the hard leather presses on the hard bone at the ball the soft tissue builds up a protecting pad. This pad is called a bunion. Take off the pressure and the bunion disappears. How can you take off this pressure? By wearing shoes that are broad in the toe and in the ball. Separate the toes by wearing cotton or cloth between them. If this does not cure you you must have an operation on the ball of your foot to draw your foot bones back together. Putting stuff on the bunion does no good.

Charles R. Fleming, traveling freight and passenger agent for the Southern Pacific, returned yesterday from Portland, Ore., where he accompanied one of the troop trains. The train left Los Angeles Thursday morning with 823 men, picked up 50 at Madera and 66 at Merced. Fleming was in charge of the train.

"It was like a holiday outing and not like a crowd of boys and men going into training for war," said Fleming. "They were all merry, and greeted people at the depots along the line with cheers. At each town where the troops were for the people turned out to greet the boys, and at many cities the band was on hand to play patriotic airs. Saturday noon the boys were fed at Hotel Multnomah, and they were greeted by the mayor of the city."

The train in charge of Fleming was the sixth to arrive from California. There are yet twelve more trains of troops to leave this state.

MODESTO, Sept. 25.—The Stanislaus exemption board certified this afternoon 86 more registered men to the district board at Sacramento. This makes a total of 452 men certified to the higher board out of the two thousand Stanislaus men examined. PORTERVILLE WILL CONTEST ELECTION

Discrepancies Are Found in Canvass of Vote on Bond Issue

PORTERVILLE, Sept. 25.—Serious discrepancies were discovered in the official canvass of the vote of last Tuesday on the proposition to improve an issue of $30,000 for public improvements, and as a result the city council members and individuals will institute a contest in the Superior Court.

By precinct 3 the reported lists gave 192 affirmative votes for the bonds, but a count of the tally sheet showed that not 135 such votes were actually counted. As the bonds carried by a margin of but one vote, assuming 192 votes to be correct, the tally sheets conform to the ballots the bonds were lost.

LEAVE TO ATTEND HIGHWAY MEETING

Kings Supervisors Go to Capital to Confer on Road to Coast

HANFORD, Sept. 25.—At the invitation of the State Highway commission, the board of supervisors has gone to Sacramento to discuss with the commission the routing of the proposed valley-to-the-coast highway and the apportionment of the expense of construction.

The plans of the supervisors and the highway commission for the routing are at variance, the state highway commission having laid plans for the road to run from Armona, north of Lemoore, to Coalinga, and then to the sea. There are two proposed plans in this county, one to take the road straight through Lemoore and another to go south of Lemoore.

By routing the road through Lemoore, it would be necessary to build a bridge over the Kings river at its widest part, and this it is estimated will cost $60,000. This route is most favored by the residents of Lemoore. The supervisors favor the route south of that city.

Funds for this highway will be provided out of the $15,000,000 state-highway bond issue. The highway between Visalia and Hanford has already been paved by the state, and the county has paved its highways to Lemoore and Armona.
